The image contains a map of Kazakhstan highlighting road projects and issues. The map includes various locations and roads, with annotations for different bypasses and road sections. The text mentions projects such as Turkestan Bypass, Temirlanovka Bypass, and Shymkent Bypass, along with issues associated with specific roadways and resettlement issues. The map is produced by the World Bank's Map Design Unit, and the boundaries, colors, and denominations shown do not imply any judgment on the legal status of any territory or acceptance of such boundaries.